

2012-10-01 Ayawku-to Part2. The second Ayaw Ku-to health program, was held for 2 consecutive Saturdays mornings (Oct 13 & 20) at Paco Area. Fe Cabrera, RYMI staff, gave an orientation to the children and their parents, about 'Fleas', possible causes and suggested prevention. Treatment was provided by using a special shampoo. Towels were also distributed to the families. This was made possible in cooperation with Manila Fire Department who provided the much needed water and Filipino Friends in Norway.

2012-11-24 Victory Group headed by Mommy Beth held an outreach activity one Saturday afternoon at St Paul's area. The kids were divided into 2 groups, alternately the songs Awesome God and Take It All were taught, while the other group is playing the paper plate game. Afterwards Teacher Nic, shared the David & Goliath story, ending up with small group discussion and a reminder that if we encounter any trouble in life, just think of David's 5 rocks equivalent to "The Lord is my Rock." Their Dentist member gave the children an Oral Hygiene lesson and even facilitated a game related to it. Prizes were overflowing during these activities. Spaghetti, chicken lollipop and juice were served. The day ended with loot bags distributed to the children. Another Victorious day with Jesus.

2012-12-09 Every year Kuya Cadio sponsors the birthday party of a child celebrating his/her birthday on the same day as his, December 9. Angie has been the beneficiary of this blessing for 3 yrs now. She has grown to be a grateful child because of this special favor that she undeservingly yearly receives. It's a McDonald party, with Grimace joining the celebration. Party started with action songs from Hands-to-Street-kid program. Kids played games and enjoyed McDonald's spaghetti, fries, sundaes and drinks. Gifts from Rayomar group of companies were distributed to the Lumbayao kids. Party ended with a heart-felt prayer for Kuya Cadio's complete healing.

2012-12-21 Toys for Tots, a joint project of US Marines together w/ US Embassy Club to distribute Toys for Kids. A number of US marines in their uniforms & volunteers from US embassy & USEC distributed toys to RYMI kids. They gave a total of 500 gifts. They helped out in unwrapping the gifts so the kids can already play with their new toys. Afterwards the kids had a snack of porridge w/ egg.

2012-11 Bounty eggs. Recently, eggs have been a part of the activities in RYMI, Christmas parties, Sunday Services & Day care in RYMI. The eggs are boiled and eaten as it is or with porridge, prepared ingredient for sandwich spread or leche flan. Whether prepared or even distributed raw to different families, the eggs always bring a smile to the kids and promotes health as well.

2012-10-27 RYMI @ USEC Bazaar USEC blessed RYMI with a booth at the recent bazaar held at the World Trade Center. Shirts and postcards were sold for the benefit of the ministry, RYMI.

2012-12-01 Bridges Travel and Tours started the month with a blast! Kids ages 10 yrs old and up from our Makati and Manila areas had their Christmas Party at Jollibee Cash & Carry. The Kuyas and Ates from Bridges joined the kids, adding much fun to the games. Spaghetti, burger, fries, drinks and sundae were served. Jollibee and Hetty graced the party with a dance number. Kids were later sent-off with a Bridges gift bag.

2012-12-01 Christmas Rocks 3! Third time in a row, Rock Church has once more blessed Reach Youth Ministries, Inc. 30 kids from different areas where pre-selected as the adoptees for RC's 2012 Christmas party. 30 Members of the RC Church posted as adoptors for the adoptees. Adopter and adoptees got to know each other, joined the games together, exchanged gifts and shared meals. Best part, as always, was when the adoptors prayed for their adoptees which can't be helped ending up in hugs and tears. Capping off the party was the distribution of bayongs with 13kgs of goodies, this is aside from the school bags, shoes, vitamins and personalized cupcake for each kid. RC truly rocks!!!

2012-12-07 Kinder Explorers Christmas Party with RYMI Day Care

Kids.60 kids ages 4-6 from different areas were brought to the Kinder Explorer School. They prepared a program, did storytelling, held games, shared food & distributed bags of give aways. The children of different nationalities sat & ate together w/ RYMI Daycare kids. The kids were allowed to play in the playground before finally going back to their homes.

2012-12-08 MediCall, the pioneer in medical bpo in the Philippines sponsored the Christmas Party of the 100 kids from Oro-B. The Party started with a prayer, presentation of a dance number and a skit about "the gift" - that our hearts are our gifts to God this Christmas season. The Ate's and Kuya's from MediCall also did a short dance number. Rescue game was played, then the kids were divided into 3 groups by age then played more games such as paper plate relay, sweetest smile and caterpillar. Jollibee spaghetti, chicken with drinks never failed to lighten up the kids faces. Loot bags were distributed to every one. It was a hot Saturday morning but the kids did not even notice it, which just means they really had so much fun.

2012-12-08 WWCF Kidzone & RYMI. When 2 Christian groups with the passion of loving children joins together, it results to one awesome day! WWCF Kidzone ministry has once again joined effort with RYMI in sharing God's love for the kids. A few years back, Kidzone teachers participated in the Hands-to-Street-Kids program of RYMI. Together they taught Bible stories and fed the street children afterwards. This year they committed to sponsor the Christmas Party of 100 kids from Paco Area. They themselves are awed on how God provided the resources they needed to make the party a reality. The kids, together with the teachers from both RYMI and Kidzone, sung and danced their hearts out praising our Lord. Games were facilitated by Kidzone teachers. Dance numbers were presented. Spaghetti, chicken, boiled egg, chocolate bar and juice were served. Prizes were given to selected parols and hats that the kids made in advance. Christmas gifts were also distributed. Kids went home not only with full hands but with full hearts as well :)

2012-12-09 Old Friends. Most of the time God works His ways through familiar faces but different situations. Good friends from way way back sponsored the Christmas party of kids 9 years old and below from Ponte/Mascardo/Montojo, Sunrise/Davila and St Paul Areas. Even before 7pm, the children already started filling up the front door of Jollibee Cash & Carry. The Atienza family and friends blessed the life of these 130 kids. Games were played, overflowing Jollibee food were served. Spaghetti, fries, burger, sundae and drinks. Christmas gifts were distributed, Jollibee himself spent time with the kids. More than the prizes, gifts and food, it's the love that goes with the thought for these children that makes the difference in their lives.

2012-12 Rayomar Group of Companies has continued with its tradition of filling the RYMI L300FB with gifts for the kids in the different areas of RYMI. Their gifts were distributed during the different Christmas parties.

2012-12-15 Kids In Day School (KIDS) had their Christmas concert at the University of Makati. RYMI was invited to speak on how the relationship w/ KIDS started. Around 8 yrs ago RYMI started to send 2 scholars every year to attend their pre-school classes for free. Two of the girls, Wilhemerose & Rizza, who are now in grade 6 were both graduates of KIDS. RYMI representative thanked the parents for their support that as they send their children to a good school for a bright future, they are somehow helping poor children to have the same privileges.

KIDS also donated 39 buckets of groceries.

2012-12-16 RYMI Christmas Party. RYMI celebrated the love & faithfulness of our Lord and each other thru a Christmas Party held at the Marmol place. Games were played and food were shared. Most heart warming was when the 3 raffle prizes were won by the NEW workers of the ministry. God, once again, had His sweet way of blessing His beloved workers.
